Stories of classic songs find themselves being told on film...

The Movie

Based on the classic R & B artist Luther Ingram's million seller mega-hit of the same name, it is said to be a cross between Disclosure (Demi Moore) and Fatal Attraction (Michael Douglas) with an urban twist. Co-written by Ingram's son, ELI, this classic story of infidelity finds a fairly successful independent record label owned by a "jet-set" couple on the verge of making it big when they hire a new secretary to handle front office duties. Soon after, those duties move to the back office and into the studio where the husband spends all of his time writing and creating. Not only does he find himself with a "smash" hit but in a torrid affair of love and deceit as well.

Supported by a slammin' soundtrack from Walker Boy Entertainment as well as a monstrous duet rendition of the original classic song, look for this film to go down in urban history as one of the greatest ever.
